

Symmetric uses one shared key; asymmetric uses a public and a private key

Symmetric (AES)

Use: bulk data and PII at rest

Fast and efficient

Key sharing is hard

Asymmetric (RSA)

Use: TLS handshake and signatures

Solves key sharing

Slower to run